Minutes from January Meeting

The Westside Wine Club Holiday Extravaganza was an awesome event. A very special thanks to Bill & Jane Spiller for hosting such a successful outing. The official club business was to welcome the new officers (listed below) and to thank the past officers as the club really appreciates the service they gave to the club. The rest of the party was wonderful as the wine flowed, and the food was great, and the wine discussions were enlightening. Funny thing about wine club events, we never seem to run out of wine! Thanks to all who brought goodies to eat and wine to share.

February Meeting Guest Speaker

John Bell is the winemaker and sole owner of Willis Hall, LLC. He last spoke to the Club at the December, 2004, meeting about his experiences in making the jump from amateur to commercial wine maker. This time he shall speak on "Terroir - a Taste of a Place". Please join us for an informative and fun evening with John and our fellow Wine Club members. In the meantime, take a look at the Willis Hall website: www.willishall.com/home.html

General News Items

As the saying goes for each New Year – "Out with the old and In with the new", it is very appropriate for the WSWC. Of course, this refers to renewing your membership and paying those membership dues. The dues are very reasonable at only $15 for individuals and $25 for couples. Bring those check books to the February meeting or you could mail them to me, your gracious Sec/Treasurer at: Henry Morgan
14560 SW Forest Glen Lane
Sherwood, OR 97140

We should all a moment to thank last year's leadership team, especially Mike Yamrick and Mike Fredd. These guys have done a great in keeping the club running well. They will be a tough act to follow.

Remember: Your membership dues for 2006 are due now!
